ISSUE ONE HUNDRED AND FORTY FIVE

DECEMBER 12th 2022

Sign of the Times

It's been a sad week for the Craft Beer Industry with several breweries set to cease trading. Solvay Society have decided to call it a day, and both The Wild Beer Company and Twisted Wheel have gone into Administration. These breweries will be surely missed and we hope their staff manage to find alternative employment in these difficult times.

Fingers crossed this is not the thin end of the wedge, but it does seem likely that the combined effects of the Covid pandemic, rising energy prices and the cost of living crisis will likely cause more casualties.

Only one story on our minds this week, as, sadly, three much loved UK Craft Breweries, producing diverse range of styles announced that they are closing.

Taproom Review

CO FOUNDER TWICB

Porty Vault, Edinburgh

243 Portobello High St, Portobello, Edinburgh EH15 2AW

The Porty Vault Taproom & Smokehouse is located on Portobello High Street, Portobello in Edinburgh and is just a few minutes walk from the Vault City Brewery, the home of Modern Sour Beer.

The TWICB Team were out in force as seven of us turned up last Friday lunchtime on a cold but sunny Scottish day with the plan to use up our Crowdfunder vouchers that helped to establish this great venue. We arrived promptly at noon, just as it opened and were eager to see what was on offer!

The taproom has a fantastic selection of modern sour beers, with 36 taps all vying for attention. The majority of the beers were of course brewed by Vault City themselves, but they did also have a fine selection of guest beers, most of which were of the sour variety apart from an Imperial Stout, lager and cider.

Taproom Review

All the latest Vault City brews were on offer together with beers from Northern Monk, Donzoko, Low Key, Wiper & True and Burley Oak. A range of meads, wine and cider were also available, together with a well-stocked beer fridge offering alternatives to sour beers.

The bar itself can comfortably sit around 25-30 people on an assortment of wooden tables and stools. The kitchen is housed in the taproom itself and boasts a state-of-the-art smoker imported from the US, and which creates fabulous BBQ food. Sadly the kitchen had technical issues during our visit so we were unable to avail ourselves of this fabulous complement to craft beer.

36 craft beer taps should keep most visitors satisfied.

The Porty Vault is open 7 days a week, noon til 10pm, Sunday - Thursday and noon til 1am Friday and Saturday.

Dogs and children are welcome until 8pm.

The Podcast with Crop Beer Co.

You can listen to the Podcast by downloading through the normal channels, including Apple and Spotify from 4am Monday.

EPISODE 137 - CROP BEER CO.

We are delighted to welcome to the podcast, Don from Crop Beer Co based in Southsea.

Don honed his craft at both Dig Brew and Tap It, before launching Crop in 2021 - initially contract brewing, before taking on the brewery at the Greenwich in Southsea, Portsmouth.

Crop is passionate about innovation as a constant, and if that means breaking things because they push them to far, well that'll be lessons learned. At Crop they don't brew by the rules, they bend them to the limit and make new ones that suit them.
