ISSUE ONE HUNDRED AND

MAY 23rd 2022

Does anyone remember Covid?

Have you noticed that you can now watch a full news bulletin without hearing the dreaded 'C' word? It's still around, but seems all but forgotten. Good riddance to it - but at least we have had decent craft beer to see us through those dark times.

Lots of great new craft beer releases to report on this week - full of summer offerings, with the odd dark beer thrown in for good measure.

Taproom Review

STEVE P
CO FOUNDER TWICB

Old Street Brewery & Taproom

Unit 1 Queen's Yard, Hackney Wick, London E9 5EN

Old Street Brewery & Taproom is located near to the canal at Hackney Wick, close to Howling Hops and The Merchant's Tap, making it a must stop for the craft beer lover. It is just a minute's walk from Hackney Wick station, just 2 stops down the line from Stratford.

The taproom has a certain rustic charm with wooden tables, barrels and benches, wood covered interior walls, artwork covered external walls and a dark taproom interior that perfectly matches the vibe of the place. The inside is snug but surprising spacious, and there is lots of extra covered seating in a courtyard area plus additional uncovered seating elsewhere.

Street food is available from 'Scoundrels', a permanent unit in the courtyard serving delicious Mexican food.

Taproom Review

The bar has 12 keg taps serving mostly Old Street Brewery beers with the odd guest tap. A large TV screen has the beer listings with full descriptions, so choosing your tipples is an easy pleasure. A well-stocked beer fridge offers additional choices and the bar also stocks wines and spirits.

Beer selections cover most styles including New England Pales, Wit beers, sours, IPAs, DIPAs and an Imperial Stout. Pick of the bunch, when we visited last Friday, was a 9% DIPa called 'Nine Tomorrows' featuring experimental hop variety HBC 586 which was fruity, bitter and quite delicious.

The taproom boasts 12 taps mainly serving beer fresh from the brewery.

The taproom has a packed diary of events with live music, food tasting, guided beer tastings, parties amongst other things. Check out their Facebook & Instagram pages for the latest info.

Opening times are 5pm until late Monday to Thursday and from noon until late Friday, Saturday and Sunday. There was a satisfying buzz about the place, even early on a Friday afternoon when we visited, and we imagine their evening events are quite an experience. If you fancy a taproom with plenty of life, then The Old Street Brewery & Taproom is certainly worth a visit.
