Last Call For Festivals

As the summer draws to a close, so does the opportunity of enjoying the atmosphere of a craft beer festival. September is pretty much the last month in which you can attend one of these memorable events and expect some decent weather.

There are no fewer than 4 craft beer festivals being held on the same weekend of the 16-18th September - in Birmingham, Derby, Southampton & Middlesbrough.

The TWICB Team will be out in force again towards the end of the month at Beer Central, Birmingham and again at Indy Man Beer Con in Manchester. Come and say hello if you get the chance.

Taproom Review

STEVE P
CO FOUNDER TWICB

Thornbridge Brewery

Riverside Brewery, Buxton Rd, Bakewell DE45 1GS

Your intrepid reporter found himself in Bakewell in the Peak District a couple of weeks ago on a beautiful sunny day. After walking around this delightful market town for a while it was decided that refreshment was in order. A short drive from the town centre was the large and very popular Thornbridge Brewery Taproom.

The brewery taproom is housed in its own unit on a modern industrial estate. The brewery itself is located on the area occupying a couple of large industrial units close to the taproom. It is clear that Thornbridge are certainly the main business on the estate with their brewery, shop, taproom and storage areas dominating the landscape.

The taproom itself has a large outside seating area, both covered and uncovered – for those that prefer the fresh air. Inside there is seating for perhaps 150-200 people in a large and spacious area with wooden tables and chairs.

Taproom Review

The taproom was particularly busy on this Saturday lunchtime but we still managed to find a table with no fuss. Bookings are encouraged online but walk-ins can usually find a table without a problem.

The bar had 16 keg taps and 6 traditional hand pumps. Apart from a local cider, all of the taps and pumps were serving Thornbridge beers. Many of the beers were well known as they are available in supermarkets, but it was nice to drink them fresh from the source.

I enjoyed a pint of hand-pulled Jaipur (what else?) and it slipped down a treat. I even managed a 1/3rd of their delicious 12% Imperial Stout - the well named 'Necessary Evil'.

The taproom has plenty of room and the tables are well spaced apart.

Food is available in the form of delicious pizzas cooked on the premises and delivered direct to your table.

The Thornbridge Taproom is open 7 days a week from noon every day.
