NOVEMBER 7th 2022

November Rain

November is not a great month. The clocks have just gone back making the evenings dark, dismal and foreboding. The long winter stretches out in front of us, cold, wet and probably snowy, are the only weather prospects and the optimism of the New Year is still a far way off.

The way to cope, perhaps, is to sup a few craft beers and get through the month unscathed.

Beer - the panacea of all ills!

Cheers.
