JULY 24th 2023

Manchester Bender

The TWICB Team have just returned from an incredible weekend in Manchester, albeit nursing sore heads. Friday evening was a true delight spent at the Manchester Craft Beer Festival, where we happily embraced the all-you-can-drink format during an epic 5-hour session.

Saturday was just as thrilling, with visits to the taprooms of Track Brewing Co, Cloudwater Brew Co, and Sureshot Brewing, culminating in the exploration of various craft bars in the town centre!

Manchester might not have the weather, but it certainly makes up for it in craft beer venues.

Cheers,

The TWICB Team

Festival Review

STEVE P
CO FOUNDER TWICB

Manchester Craft Beer Festival

Depot Mayfield, 11 Baring St, Manchester M1 2PY

An eagerly awaited weekend away finally arrived as the TWICB Team descended upon Manchester last Friday afternoon to attend the Manchester Craft Beer Festival for the first time.

It's true what they say about the Manchester weather - it's either raining or about to rain, and this proved to be spot on! This would probably explain the organisers decision to hold the festival in a large open-plan warehouse providing ample cover for all attendees.

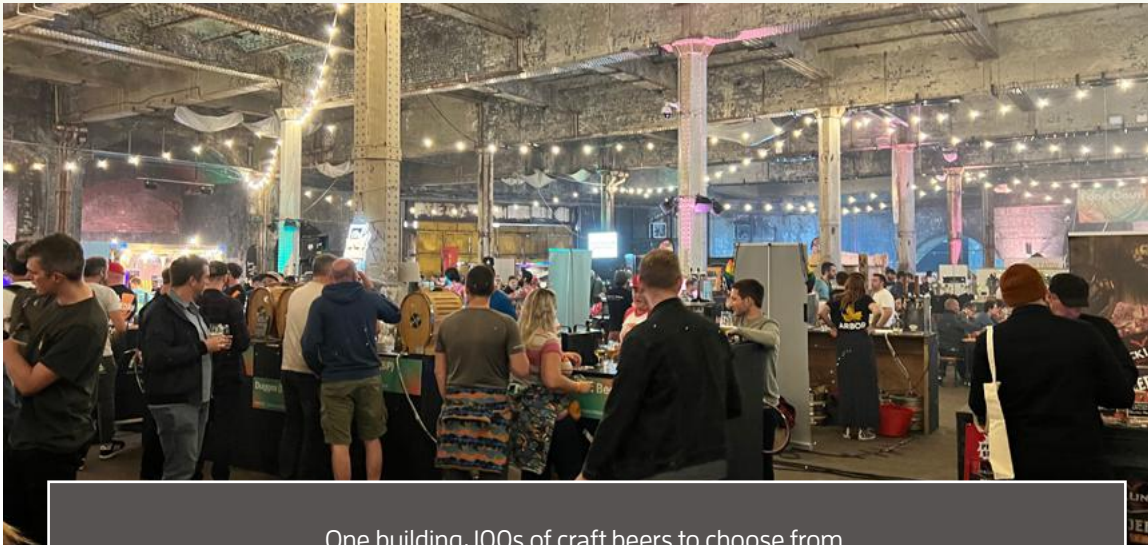

Despite the damp weather, a large queue had formed half an hour before the scheduled opening time, but visitors were quickly issued with wrist bands and allowed to shelter in the large covered entrance area prior to passing a security and bag check before being issued with festival beer glasses.

Festival Review

Tickets to the festival were of the all-inclusive variety, which I prefer, meaning you can sample as many beers as you want for the entrance fee of £55. This enables thirsty punters to sample beer styles and breweries they might not otherwise experience at other pay-as-you-go festivals. The safe choice might not be the best choice, and I personally have been surprised at how much I have enjoyed beer styles I would have normally avoided.

The Festival was well attended with over 6500 tickets sold over the 3 sessions, Friday evening, Saturday afternoon and Saturday evening. The warehouse had plenty of seating and we had no trouble finding table space as we moved around sampling the delicious beers.

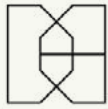

One building, 100s of craft beers to choose from.

More than 80 breweries proudly presented their finest creations, with the majority from the UK. Additionally, there were hoppy contributions from the US and Europe, adding a diverse international flair to the event. While a few UK breweries were noticeably absent, their presence did not overshadow the overall enjoyment of the occasion.

The event offered an array of street food options, perfectly complementing the diverse selection of beers, while DJs and a live band provided an electrifying musical backdrop. The lively and vibrant atmosphere quickly established itself, setting the stage for an unforgettable and enjoyable experience for all attendees.

PRESS RELEASE - FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DOUBLE – BARRELLED BREWERY APPOINTS DAVE TUGWELL AS SALES DIRECTOR

Double-Barrelled is excited to welcome Dave Tugwell to its board of directors a newly created role of Sales Director. Dave brings with him over 15 years experience in the licenced drinks trade, most recently having spent 4 years at Big Smoke Brew Co, as Sales Director, alongside previous roles Orchard Pig cider, Wells & Youngs and Wadworth Brewing Co.

Dave joins the board with a clear remit for managing all sales domestically and internationally for Double-Barrelled, and utilising his wide network of industry contacts, knowledge and experience to help shape the sales strategy in full.

Dave Tugwell says, "I am thrilled to be joining one of the best breweries in the UK to aid Luci, Mike and their wonderful team to grow Double-Barrelled in the coming years. Having followed and admired the story and growth of Double-Barrelled since their inception, I'm excited to get stuck in to the project and the opportunity to become a part of the exciting Double-Barrelled future."

Co-founder and Managing Director Luci Clayton-Jones says "We are delighted for Dave to be joining Double-Barrelled, bringing invaluable experience and sales strategy to our team. We are over the moon that Dave also sees the opportunity within Double-Barrelled and also our core range, particularly Parka." Co-founder and Operations Director Mike Clayton-Jones adds "I couldn't be more excited for the future of Double-Barrelled as we grow our team, and the introduction of Dave to the board of directors is absolutely the right fit for us as a business. His passion and experience combined offer us some fantastic opportunities in the immediate and long-term future."

The brewery has rapidly grown over the past four years, seeing 100%+ volume growth year-on-year for the past 4 years, and targeting an additional 50% volume growth in FY2023/'24 increasing outputs to circa 4,500hL, despite the challenging trading environment. As well as frequent special and seasonal releases, growth has been primarily focused on Double-Barrelled's two core beers, with the majority of increases in volume forecast to be based around Parka, their 4.5% award winning Citra dry hopped pale ale.
