SEPTEMBER 30th 2024

9 Gone - 3 To Go!

Today sees us exactly threequarters of the way through 2024 - where did those nine months go?

There's now only Halloween, Guy Fawkes night and the small matter of the American election between today and Christmas. Who knows what effect the latter will have on us and the rest of the world? What with our own new government threatening sweeping changes, plus Putin, Israel and all, I find it a bit scary to be honest.

Which is why I need to cheer myself up with a reasonable intake of some delightful and delicious craft ale brews. As the weather turns wetter and colder, memories of summer light IPAs and sours are changing to thoughts of much darker and stronger offerings. I'm comforted already.

Cheers!

Budget Incoming

As the budget is fast-approaching, the drinks industry was ramping up the doomsday rhetoric this week to try to dissuade the Chancellor from increasing duties.

50 Pubs Closing Each Week

Property analytics Company Altus reported that pubs have closed at the rate of 50 per month in the first half of 2024, leaving just over 39,000 in England and Wales. We feel like we should care about this, but honestly, when was the last time a pub serving a decent range of craft beer closed in your area? Answers on a post card....!

Lost in Leith Bar & Fermentaria

82 Commercial Street, Edinburgh, EH6 6LX

Lost In Leith Bar & Fermentaria is a must-visit spot for craft beer lovers, showcasing Campervan Brewery's diverse range of brews alongside an eclectic selection of beers from around the world. Housed in a space that feels delightfully subterranean, the low arched brick ceiling, wooden flooring, and rustic furnishings create an intimate, cozy atmosphere. For those who prefer the outdoors, there are tables available outside as well.

The taproom impresses with its 18 keg taps, featuring a variety of craft beers, plus a well-stocked fridge that expands the selection even further. Wine lovers will appreciate the carefully curated list, focused on low-intervention producers, while spirit enthusiasts can enjoy a wide range of Scottish-sourced options. There are also soft drinks for the non-beer crowd.

Taproom Review

The standout feature of Lost In Leith is its on-site barrel-aging process, where three large oak Foeders from France add a unique touch to the beer experience. It's a rare treat to sample beers brewed with such craftsmanship.

While there's no kitchen, Lost In Leith has made it easy to satisfy your hunger with their clever partnership with Pizza Geeks across the road. You can order food straight to your table, no delivery fee required. The flexibility to bring in food from local favourites is a bonus.

Taproom Review

Beer lovers should take advantage of the Beer Academy, a tasting and educational experience that dives into different beer styles and the brewing process. Perfect for both beginners and aficionados, it's a great way to deepen your appreciation of Campervan's creations.

Booking is recommended due to the bar's popularity, but walk-ins are welcome. Whether you're there to try something new, soak in the relaxed vibes, or learn a thing or two about brewing, Lost In Leith has something for everyone.

Opening Hours:
Monday–Tuesday: 4pm–10pm
Wednesday–Friday: 4pm–12am
Saturday: 12pm–12am
